

Peek-a-Boo Day

Make today “Peek-A-Boo Day.” See how many times and ways you can play peek-a-boo with your child. Catch his/her eye around corner, through your fingers, over a book, from under a chair.

Use the ideas from today to play peek-a-boo often. Over time, you can take turns leading. It is a fun way to practice hellos and goodbyes and to learn an important idea: that people still exist even when out of sight.
